What's work-appropriate?

Corporette.com's Kat Griffin shares tips on what to wear

- * Stick to knee-skimming hemlines. "They always look right. Don't go more than two inches above the knee."
- * Avoid showing cleavage. "Stash a camisole in your office for emergency cover-ups."
- * Keep your bag well-maintained. "It shows that you pay attention to detail."
- * Wear refined flats or heels. "Either shoe is fine—just don't go higher than 3 or 4 inches with your heels. If you can't walk quickly next to your coworker, they're too high. Also, no thick platforms!"
- * Ditch jingly jewelry. "It's distracting if you're on a conference call or typing next to someone."

Perfect Everyday Bags!

They're roomy enough to hold it all, structured enough not to look sloppy. Go with croc-embossing, leather or fabric great lightweight option!
